Re: In re: UniEnergy Technologies, LLC, Case No. 21-11903

Dear Judge Alston:

Pursuant to the Court's instructions in its April 4, 2022 letter granting the parties' request for a continuance, counsel to the petitioning creditors and counsel to the alleged debtor have conferred and agreed on various new dates to be incorporated into an amended scheduling order. Such agreed dates are as follows:

- Exhibits shall be exchanged between parties and provided to the Court in electronic format by May 17, 2022.
- The parties' prehearing statements shall be filed by May 19, 2022.
- Hard copies of exhibits shall be provided to the Court by May 19, 2022.
- Any other motion in limine or objection to exhibits shall be filed by May 18, 2022 to be heard at the evidentiary hearing. Responses to any such motions or objections shall be filed by May 23, 2022.
- The parties must confirm that the evidentiary hearing is going forward not later than noon on May 17, 2022.
